

NORTH CAROLINA LibRARIES

RECEIVED

SEP 21 1992

LIBRARY - PERIODICALS
EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

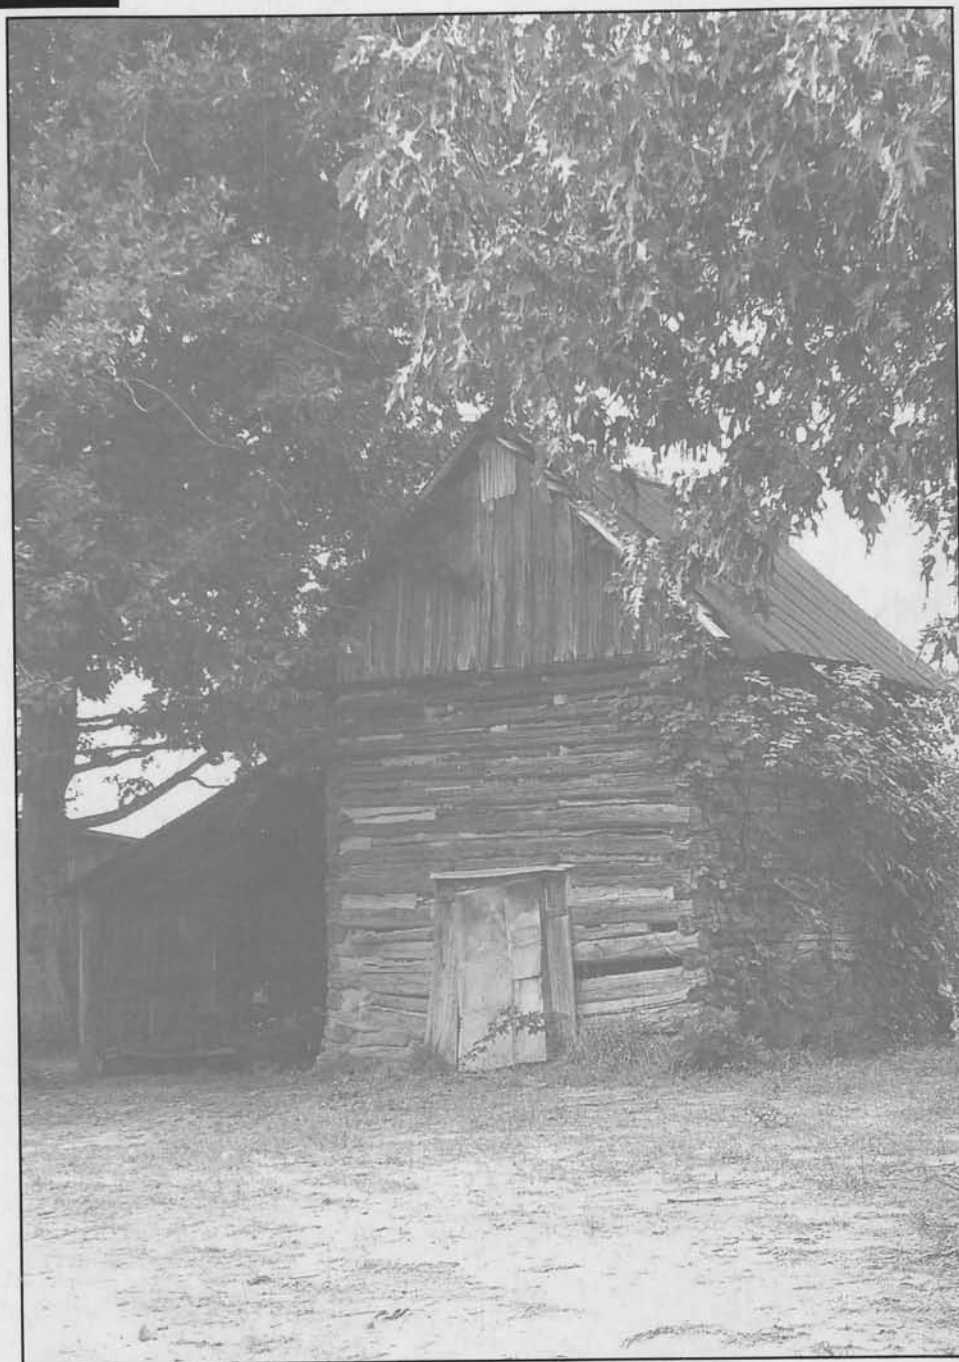

Special Edition 1992

Crisis in Librarianship

While others were learning to read and use the information in the books we had warehoused and classified to advance themselves and their professions, we essentially stranded our power and image in the minds of the rest of the world somewhere between the Xerox monk and Marian the Librarian.

— Howard McGinn, 1992

NORTH CAROLINA LIBRARIES
wishes to thank the Division of State Library for its LSCA grant to publish this special issue of the journal.

