On the Cover:

Top Right: Dr. James Carmichael of UNC-G's Department of Library and Information Studies had the great honor of introducing five ALA presidents, all of whom addressed the Second General Session. They are Hardy Franklin, current ALA president; Marilyn Miller, immediate past president; Patricia Glass Schuman; E.J. Josey; and Edward G. Holley.

Middle Left: Clyde Edgerton's Tarwater Band and author Lee Smith were the main attractions at the Third General Session.

Bottom Left: Conference Committee members Chuck Mallas, Martha Davis, and Martha Fonville finally get a chance to relax after registering over 1200 NCLA members for this year's convention.

Bottom Right: All conference attendees gathered at the Awards Gala for an evening of dessert, conversation, and appreciation as many members were honored for a variety of achievements.
