North Carolina Library URLs

In the summer of 1996 I requested on the Listserv NCLA-L that North Carolina libraries with home pages send me a copy of their Internet locations for inclusion in what I hope to be an annual directory in North Carolina Libraries. This request was in response to several inquiries from librarians in North Carolina for such a directory. The list below is what I have received as of November 15, 1996. Please continue to send me updates to this directory, for which I thank you very much.
