Guidelines for Using the Index to North Carolina Libraries

- Articles are indexed by title, subject, and first-named author, with cross-references from coauthors.
- Book reviews are indexed by the title and first-named author, with cross-references from co-authors and reviewers.
- All library organizations are entered under their full names. Material on the substructures of these organizations, such as committees, round tables, etc., is listed alphabetically under the organization name. (For example, for material on the activities, officers, reports, committees, and round tables of NCLA, see North Carolina Library Association.)
- The abbreviations "comp.," "ed.," "ill.," and "pic.," are used to identify compilers, editors, illustrators, and pictures.

TONKIN GULF AND THE ESCALATION OF THE VIETNAM WAR

EDWIN E. MOÏSE
"After years of painstaking work, this meticulous and fair scholar and interviewer has developed, in depth, the answers to all the questions about what went on in that gulf in that first week of August, 1964."

—Admiral James Stockdale

HISTORICAL TRUTH AND LIES ABOUT THE PAST

Reflections on Dewey, Dreyfus, de Man, and Reagan
ALAN B. SPITZER
Historians have long struggled with the questions of historical relativism, objectivity, and standards of proof and evidence.

Intellectual historian Alan Spitzer focuses on the contradiction between theory and practice by presenting case studies of four politically charged debates about the past.

GOOD WIVES, NASTY WENCHES, AND ANXIOUS PATRIARCHS

Gender, Race, and Power in Colonial Virginia

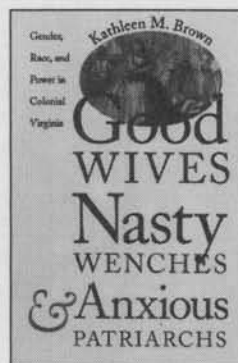

KATHLEEN M. BROWN

"In the early days of women's history, its practitioners promised that the study of women would one day change the way we look at history itself. Arguing that gender and sexuality were central to the development of both slavery and the eighteenth century's plantation elite, Kathleen Brown makes good on that promise."—Suzanne Lebsock, University of Washington

THE ALABAMA AND THE KEARSARGE

The Sailor's Civil War

WILLIAM MARVEL
"Batten down the hatches for an exciting read."

—James M.

McPherson
William Marvel

interweaves the stories of these two celebrated Civil War battleships, from their construction to their climactic encounter off Cherbourg. Just as importantly, he illuminates the day-to-day experiences of their crews, from cabin boys to officers.

KINGS AND QUEENS OF EUROPE

A Genealogical Chart of the Royal Houses of Great Britain and Europe

ANNE TAUTÉ

ILLUSTRATED BY ROMILLY SQUIRE

This elegantly illustrated and colorful wallchart (48" x 35") shows the lineage and coats of arms of the royal houses of Great Britain and Europe from the tenth century to the present, from Aethelred the Unready to Charles and Diana. Featuring 164 heraldic shields, the chart traces all of Europe's royal lines.

BETWEEN AUTHORITY AND LIBERTY

State Constitution Making in Revolutionary America

MARC W. KRUMAN

Marc Kruman explores the process of constitution making in each of the thirteen original states and shows that the framers greatly feared arbitrary power and mistrusted legislators' ability to represent the people's interests. His analysis challenges Gordon Wood's now-classic argument that, at the beginning of the Revolution, the founders placed great faith in legislators as representatives of the people.

THE PEOPLE'S WELFARE

Law and Regulation in Nineteenth-Century America

WILLIAM J. NOVAK

"Novak's study blasts to pieces the surprisingly hardy myth of laissez-faire, the libertarian fantasy that until the twentieth century the American state left private property owners and economic entrepreneurs alone. As his careful and original study demonstrates, the early republic was also a thoroughly 'well-regulated society.'"
