

north carolina libraries

ISSN 0029-2540

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Report of the 1983 NCLA Biennial Conference

- 186 Stand Up for Libraries, Frederick J. Glazer
192 Stand Up for Intellectual Freedom, Judith F. Krug
201 Thomas Wolfe in October, James W. Clark, Jr.
207 The Open Door: Parent Oriented Programming, *Peggy
Byrd and Ruth Roland*
211 Pay Equity, Nancy Perlman
220 The Guidelines for Making Interlibrary Loan Work in This State, Carolyn Sue B. Farr
223 Making It Work: College and University Interlibrary
Lending, Michelle H. Neal
225 Reports of Meetings
227 Resolutions and Awards
233 Biennial Reports 1981-83

Articles

- 244 Easy and Inexpensive Display Ideas for the Small Library,
Anne Sanders
248 Librarians and Accreditation: A Survey of North Carolina Librarians, Kathleen R. Brown

Features

- 182 From the President, Leland M. Park
252 New North Carolina Books
260 Keeping Up
266 NCLA Minutes and Reports

Cover: Nancy Perlman, "Pay Equity," North Carolina Libraries 41 (Winter 1983): 219. Perlman's remarks and others from the recent NCLA Biennial Conference are highlighted in this issue.

Advertisers: Baker & Taylor, p. 185; Blackwell North America, Cover 2; Ebsco, p. 247; National Geographic, Cover 3; Reprint Company, p. 247.