

north carolina libraries

ISSN 0029-2540

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Articles

- 4 Introduction, Patsy Hansel and Harry Tuchmayer
- 5 Building a Usable Library Collection, Harry Tuchmayer
- 10 Balancing the Books, Valerie W. Lovett
- 12 Approval Plans as a Method of Collection Development, Sallie E. Mann
- 15 Faculty vs. Staff Selection: Collection Development in the Academic Library, Eugene Huguelet
- 17 The System of Allocations from the Book Budget at UNC-G, James H. Thompson
- 20 Computers and Collection Development, George B. Viele
- 23 Building a Serials Collection in an Academic Library, Joline R. Ezzell
- 26 Development of a Collection: The Music Library at East Carolina University, Geraldine Laudati
- 29 Collecting North Caroliniana, Alice R. Cotten
- 32 Developing Your Fiction Collection — Realistically Speaking, Frances Bryant Bradburn
- 35 Collection Development in a Municipal Public Library, Robert C. Russell
- 39 Collection Development in a Public Library Branch, Patrice Gaffney Ebert
- 43 The Hatteras Library: A Small Unit in a Regional System, Anne D. Sanders
- 45 Merchandising the Collection from the Small Branch Perspective, Barbara Cashwell
- 47 Librarians' Attitudes Toward Networking, Peggy Chapman

Features

- 2 From the President, Leland M. Park
- 52 New North Carolina Books
- 61 NCLA Minutes

Cover: Joline R. Ezzell, "Building a Serials Collection in an Academic Library," North Carolina Libraries 43 (Spring 1985): 23-25. This issue features a number of observations on collection development in North Carolina libraries.

Advertisers: American Library Association, pp. 31, 42; Baker & Taylor, p. 3; Children's Services Section, NCLA, p. 19; Ebsco, p. 4; Freedom to Read Foundation, p. 4; McGregor, p. 38; National Geographic, p. 9; Phiebig, p. 8; Ruzicka, p. 22; University Microfilms, pp. 22, 44.