

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS

The Sondley Reference Library and the Pack Memorial Library have been combined in Asheville in the Pack Memorial Building. By this consolidation, Asheville has one of the finest public libraries in the Southeast.

* * * *

Mrs. Hallie Sykes Bacelli, one of our Editors, who has been librarian at Harding High School in Charlotte, began work on May 1 as a Camp Librarian at Camp Mackall, Hoffman, N. C.

* * * *

Mrs. Alma Stone Skaggs of the UNC Library has been selected as one of the twelve most distinguished graduates of Meredith College.

* * * *

Miss Emma Holman, formerly of the Woman's College Library, is now working in the Extension Division of the Virginia State Library.

* * * *

Foy Lineberry resigned from the UNC Library to become Head of the Cataloging Department of the State College Library.

* * * *

Mrs. Kate Pyron, formerly of Sweet Briar College Library has recently moved to Salem College Library.

Bessie R. Shipp is now librarian of the Ellerbe High School.

* * * *

The Randolph Public Library at Asheboro recently received a gift of $1,000 from the McCrary Mills, Inc. Incidentally, the Library Board members of the Randolph Public Library are 100 per cent members of the North Carolina Library Association.

* * * *

Mrs. Lilian B. Buchanan, Librarian of Western Carolina Teacher's College, is working on her Master's Degree at Columbia.

* * * *

The new officers of the School Librarian's Section of the North Carolina Education Association are: Mrs. Margaret Farley, Junior High School, High Point, President; Miss Eunice Querry, Lenoir, Vice-President; Miss Minnie Kallan, Gray High School Library, Winston-Salem, Secretary.

* * * *

The special election held in Davidson County on April 5, 1943, passed successfully which establishes the Davidson County Public Library on a stable basis.

* * * *

Elizabeth S. Walker resigned as librarian of the Washington, N. C., High School to become a member of the staff of East Carolina Teachers College.

* * * *

Salisbury — Contributions of $50,000 in cash and a similar amount of pledges have been received in fund for construction of a new library building on the Catawba College campus. The building will be erected after the war.

JOSEPH RUZICKA

LIBRARY BOOKBINDERS AND BOOKSELLERS

FOUNDED 1758

606 N. EUTAW STREET
BALTIMORE, MD.

230 E. MARKET STREET
GREENSBORO, N. C.

"CRAFTSTYLE" IS QUALITY BOOKBINDING