

* * * * *

PLANS FOR UNC LIBRARY SCHOOL SUMMER TERMS OF 1952

The School of Library Science at the University has notified N. C. Libraries that the two terms of summer school in 1952 will run from June 10 to July 15, and July 16 to August 20. Applications are now being accepted for all four programs offered by the School: 1. Basic courses for school librarians meeting the state requirements of 18 semester hours in library science. (Although designed to meet school needs, public library assistants wishing basic courses in cataloging, reference, and young people's book selection will be admitted to these courses.) 2. Courses leading to the degree of Master of School Librarianship. (Prerequisite, 18 semester hours of library science.) 3. Courses leading to the B.S. in L.S. degree. 4. Courses leading to the M.S. in L.S. degree. (Prerequisite, 20 semester hours of library science or equivalent experience.)

The following visiting faculty members have been secured for the Summer Session:

Miss Jimmie Deck, Cataloger, Technical Library, TVA, Knoxville, Tenn.

Mrs. Carolyn Wicker Field, Librarian, Newcastle (Delaware) County Free Library.

Miss Norris McClellan, Assistant Professor of Library Science, Louisiana State University Baton Rouge.

Howard F. McGaw, Librarian, University of Houston, Houston, Texas.

Mrs. Louise Moore Plybon, Librarian, Eastover Elementary School, Charlotte.

Miss Jane B. Wilson, Supervisor of Elementary School Libraries, Durham.