

SOUTHERN BOOKS COMPETITION—1952

The first annual Southern Books Competition presents sixteen books as representative of the best in Southern book production in 1952. An exhibit of these sixteen books is being held this spring at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro; Duke University, Durham; North Carolina State College, Raleigh; and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

The Southern Books Competition is sponsored by the Southeastern Library Association. From sixty titles submitted by Southern publishers and presses these sixteen have been chosen on the basis of typographical design and general excellence as examples of the bookmaker's art.

Books on exhibit are:

- *THE COMANCHES, LORDS OF THE SOUTH PLAINS, by Ernest Wallace and E. Adamson Hoebel, University of Oklahoma Press, 1952. (Most distinguished book of the year award.)
