
NEW ALA PUBLICATIONS

Public Librarians may look forward to several new publications to be issued in the coming months. Committees of the Public Libraries Division of the American Library Associations are currently busy on the revision of several standard works.

Dr. Lowell Martin, of Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J., met on November 17 at ALA Headquarters with his Committee to work on the revision of Post-War Standards for Public Libraries. The committee includes John M. Cory, Lucile Nix, Jean C. Roos, Amy Winslow and Mrs. Carma R. Zimmerman.

Mrs. Genevieve Galick, Head of the Massachusetts Division of Library Extension, heads the committee which is revising State Grants to Public Libraries; and Miss Dorothy Randolph, of the Vermont Free Public Library Commission, is Chairman of the committee now working on the revision of Regional and District Library Laws.
