NCLA FOUNDERS AND DURHAM LIBRARIANS HONORED

The Durham High School Library Club honored the founders of NCLA and librarians in Durham at a tea on March 16, celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Association. Special guests, in the picture above, were (left to right): Dr. J. P. Breedlove, NCLA Founder and former librarian of Duke University; Miss Florine Lewter, first director of Durham City School libraries; Miss Clara Crawford, librarian of the Durham Public Library for the past 32 years; Dr. Louis R. Wilson, NCLA Founder and former librarian of the University of North Carolina; and Mrs. Lillian B. Griggs, formerly librarian of the Durham Public Library, Secretary and Director of the North Carolina Library Commission and librarian of the Woman's College of Duke University. Dr. Breedlove, and Dr. Wilson and Mrs. Griggs are honorary members of NCLA.

The Durham High School Library was decorated with spring flowers of gold and white and hand painted napkins identified the celebration. Posters showing the Founders of the Association and events in the history of the Durham Public Library were displayed. Members of the library club assisted invited guests in registering and serving delicious refreshments. Miss Emily Loftin is the club's sponsor.
